BACKGROUND

An event is proposed for a Women's A league fixture between Adelaide United and Western United (Melbourne) as the first professional soccer game to be held in Mount Gambier for over 50 years. This is the first event of its kind in Regional Australia and a unique opportunity, on the back of the FIFA Women's World Cup, to feature a Women's A league game that will be televised worldwide. The game will be for competition points and State Government has confirmed financial support of $70,000 and Limestone Coast Football Association $10,000 of a $99,500 budget.

PROPOSAL

Council has received a request from the event organisers seeking financial and in-kind support for the proposed event and itinerary of community activations (Attachment 1). On 7 December 2023, the players will arrive in Mount Gambier to deliver an itinerary of soccer clinics and school visits commencing on Friday, 8 December 2023 and concluding on Sunday, 10 December 2023 with a free soccer clinic. The feature game will be held at Centrals Soccer club on Saturday 9 December 2023.

The sponsorship application (Attachment 2) is seeking $10,000 cash to ensure the ground is suitable for A league standard game, as per the quote supplied by Elite Turf Management (Attachment 3) in addition to $6,700 in-kind support for provision of equipment to support traffic management, waste management, signage etc.

MOUNT GAMBIER EXPRESSION OF INTEREST: A-LEAGUE WOMEN 2023/24 MATCH

Dear Shane

On behalf of Adelaide United Football Club (AUFC), we wish to explore the use of Gambier Centrals Soccer Club's venue for a women's football match for the upcoming Liberty A-League 2023/24 season.

At present, there are no fixtures locked in place, however, we have expressed interest in a Mount Gambier based home match on Saturday, 9 December 2023. We understand several operational and logistical items are underway in preparation for a potential event and thank you for your efforts to date.

Our proposed trip to Mount Gambier will not only consist of the professional fixture but also includes school visits, a free clinic for registered participants and tourist site visits.

With the Australian Professional League's (APL) permission, we intend to play our match against Western United FC to bring in support from both Adelaide and Melbourne based fans.

We aim to have confirmation from the APL and AUFC by the end of next week, to make a final decision on the visit.

Kind regards,

Eleni Vosnakis
Football Operations Coordinator
Adelaide United Football Club
